

Missionaries to Honduras

Mike and Ashley Troxell

January 2015

Vol. 6, Num. 1

Ash's folks and bro, Marc, Beth and Drew

We were so blessed to have Ashley's parents and brothers at our home for Christmas. It was a time of fun, rest, and encouragement as we celebrated the Lord's birth together. Ashley's folks were especially excited to spend time with our team, see our home, neighborhood, La Ceiba and La Fe.

It is with heavy hearts that we have decided to continue ministry in La Fe without Ovidio, the pastor we hired a little over a year ago. After many hours of mentoring, guidance, and prayer, Ovidio has continued to struggle in this position as pastor to his family and neighbors in La Fe. Please pray for his heart and relationships in La Fe now that he will no longer be partnering with us in ministry. To hear more from Mike, check out his blog.

Ovidio's grand-daughter and great grand-child

Without a pastor in La Fe, we will continue to share the Gospel through relationships, friendships and quality time with the people. The Lord continues to open doors and present opportunities to glorify Himself in the midst of the poverty and heartache that so often encompasses the lives of those who live and work in La Fe.

Prayer Support

- Praise that Doctor Roger now has sufficient funding to continue ministering alongside our team
- Pray for Ovidio and his understanding of grace and the Gospel
- Pray for the ongoing work God is doing in the hearts and lives of those in La Fe
- Pray for guidance for us and our team as we determine next steps in La Fe

La Fe's Juan, Pastora and Carlos welcome us as family
